Professional Development Seminar

Monday, 28 November 2022
18:00-20:00, LR8.3, 8th Floor (Sofou Bldg)

FOSS: A development methodology or perhaps a social movement?

Mr. Leonard Shtika

Chief Technology Officer (CTO) at Tessera Multimedia S.A.& Lecturer at CITY College, University of York, Europe Campus

In this seminar, we will talk about Free and Open Source Software and distinguish it from other development models. We will see how collaborative development works and how we can build upon the work of others to produce a better product. Join us to discuss the challenges and benefits of using FOSS for a variety of stakeholders, including users, businesses, educational institutions, and the developers themselves.
